Grade Level: K3

Name of Activity

Visiting the Hong Kong Heritage Museum

Objectives

- Introduce Chinese culture through exhibitions.
- Cultivate a sense of national identity among our children.

Brief Description

We brought our K3 students and their parents to visit the Hong Kong Heritage Museum. Each exhibition hall offering a unique window into the past. In the Cantonese Opera Heritage Hall, students discovered the intricate performance props and costumes used by renowned artists in the old days and gained a deeper appreciation of the distinctive artistry of Cantonese opera. In the Jin Yong Gallery, students dived into the captivating realm of Jin Yong's martial arts novels. They explored the diverse literary works of this celebrated author, unlocking insights into the historical significance of Hong Kong's popular culture. In the Children's Discovery Gallery, the interactive space provided our young explorers with hands-on experiences related to Hong Kong's heritage. From traditional pastimes to rural life and historical furniture, children resonated with the nostalgia of bygone eras, forging a tangible link to Hong Kong's rich history.
