Brief Description

In order to allow children to have a better understanding of traditional Chinese festivals (customs in Chinese New Year), the teacher introduced the coming Chinese New Year with the picture book Journey of Time and invited children to share their traditional customs during Chinese New Year through their life experience. As one of the customs is writing spring couplets, so the teacher and children wrote spring couplets in classroom, incorporating homophone elements. For example, pasting a picture of fish to the couplet "Every year have enough things to spend". All children found it very interesting and enjoyed the creation process.
